THE PROJECT

The ERADICATING II project aims to enhance prevention and multi-agency cooperation against labour trafficking. It focuses on building the capacity of law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, labour inspectors, and first-line practitioners to detect, identify, protect, and refer victims. Key goals include improving cross-border investigations, enhancing cooperation among various actors, and addressing the risks to Ukrainian refugees.

The project is funded with support from the European Commission under the Internal Security Fund (ISF) and has a duration of 24 months (01/12/2023-30/11/2025).

OUR LATEST NEWS

We are currently ready to share a short summary of the key findings from the needs assessment that was conducted between April and June 2024 across the 6 participating countries: Greece, Germany, Bulgaria, Romania, Slovenia and Poland.

The assessment aimed to identify challenges, training gaps, and best practices among professionals engaged in fighting labour trafficking. The data were gathered through desk research, interviews, and focus groups with relevant stakeholders. More information can be found on the website of the project.

Meeting in Munich,

BayHfoD hosted a project meeting in Munich from October 15-17th. During this meeting, we discussed the development of specialised training courses for law enforcement, prosecutors, labour inspectors, and frontline professionals. Based on our needs assessment, we identified key gaps, and at this stage, we are working to design tailored training content to enhance their skills.

Eradicating II was present in the Eurocrim conference,

Representatives of our team had the opportunity to present the key findings from the needs assessment report on labour trafficking to a great community of scholars and practitioners who attended the 24th annual conference of the European Society of Criminology, held in Bucharest on September 13th.

WHAT'S NEXT?

During the next months the Eradicating II team will be developing the training courses preparing for a series of trainings that will be implemented in all partner countries.
